Have a swim in the crystal clear sea

Camp Labadusa is located in the south bay of the island Čiovo in the vicinity of Okrug Gornji, and presents a real oasis of untouched nature.

It is a bay that is hard to describe by words or pictures. If you visit us once guided by curiosity or road signs, you will surely keep coming back satisfied that you have discovered it because it is truly an oasis of untouched nature. The Camp stretches along the beautiful bay in the shadow of pine forest. Many compliments of our guests confirm the excellent service offered and put it among the very top places for camping. Nature lovers will easily find that one exceptional spot for themselves and enjoy a relaxing holiday while breathing in the scents of lavender and pine.
